2. Background

The Estate is the owner of the residential property described below. The Employee has carried out repair and renovation work on the Property, which work is nearing completion. In recognition of that work, the Estate agrees to pay the Employee the incentive set out below upon the successful sale and transfer of the Property.

3. The Property

The residential house situated at:

32 Singlehurst, Casseldale, Springs,

being an asset of the Estate ("the Property").

4. Incentive

On registration of transfer of the Property, the Estate shall pay the Employee an incentive equal to 10% (ten percent) of the Net Proceeds in excess of R800,000.

"Net Proceeds" means the final sale price of the Property, less any estate agents' commission paid by the Estate on the sale.

5. Worked Examples

The following show how the incentive is calculated at different sale outcomes:

Net Proceeds	Excess over R800,000	Incentive (10%)
R900 000	R100 000	R10 000
R1 000 000	R200 000	R20 000
R1 200 000	R400 000	R40 000

6. Market Context (for reference)

Comparable 3-bedroom houses in Casseldale, Springs:

- Typical asking range: approx. R900,000 – R1,250,000
- Most listings cluster around R950,000 – R1,050,000

The R800,000 floor therefore sits below typical market value for the area, meaning a sale at prevailing prices is expected to trigger an incentive.

7. Threshold

If the Net Proceeds are R800,000 or less, no incentive is payable.

8. Sale Period

This incentive applies to a sale and transfer of the Property registered within 24 (twenty-four) months of the date of signature of this agreement. This period may be extended by written agreement between the parties. Subject to clause 9, if no sale is registered within this period, the incentive lapses.

9. Election to Let Instead of Sell

Should the Estate elect to let or rent the Property rather than sell it, this incentive shall not lapse but shall remain attached to the Property and become payable on the first subsequent sale and transfer of the Property, whenever that occurs. The 24-month period in clause 8 is suspended for any period during which the Property is let.

10. Departure Before Sale

If the Employee's engagement ends before the date of sale of the Property, this agreement and the incentive remain valid and payable, provided that the Employee's departure was requested or initiated by the Estate or the Executor.

11. Death, Incapacity and Succession

Should the Employee die or become permanently incapacitated before payment, the incentive shall be paid to his estate or nominated beneficiary. This agreement binds the heirs, executors, administrators and successors-in-title of the Estate and of the Executor, and remains enforceable against the Estate and any replacement executor appointed by the Master of the High Court.

12. Tax and Deductions

The incentive is a gross amount and is subject to any tax or statutory deductions required by law to be withheld.

13. No Obligation to Sell

Nothing in this agreement obliges the Estate to sell the Property, to sell at any particular price, or by any particular date. No incentive is payable unless and until a sale is registered.

14. Governing Law

This agreement is governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa, and the administration of the Estate remains subject to the Administration of Estates Act 66 of 1965.

15. Whole Agreement

This document constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. No variation is of any force unless reduced to writing and signed by both parties.
